

DEMOCRATS UPSET BY GAYNOR LETTER

Leaders At Rochester Consider Candidates on Eve of Convention.

HAVENS IN THE LEAD IN FIELD OF SEVEN

Rochester Representative's gubernatorial Boom Takes on New Life With Mayor's Refusal to Run.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 28.—The Democrats started up today to build a platform and select a man for the gubernatorial nomination for the Democratic State convention which will open here tomorrow.

Mayor Gaynor's second letter, in which he said that he would refuse the gubernatorial nomination, has left what the leaders term an open field, with Representative James S. Havens apparently leading in the estimation of many of the up-State Democrats.

The committee on platform met today to consider a draft which Edward M. Shepard brought with him. Some of the tentative planks closely resembled the policies urged by Theodore Roosevelt in his new nationalism movement, notably the one pertaining to direct primaries. The aim of the convention found seven full-fledged gubernatorial booms in full swing with a general appearance of harmony, and Charles F. Murphy, the powerful Tammany leader, declaring that Tammany had no special preference for any one man. The booms were for Representative Sulzer of New York, former State Controller Martin H. Glynn, of Albany; Representative James S. Havens, of Rochester; Thomas M. Osborne, of Auburn; Justice Gerard, of the State supreme court; Edward M. Shepard, of Brooklyn; John A. Bense, of New York.

The withdrawal of Mayor Gaynor threw the leaders into temporary confusion. It had been predicted that Gaynor stood a strong chance of being nominated by acclamation, and it was known that he was not alone favored by Tammany, but by many of the delegations and leaders from other sections of the State.

A series of conferences started today which is expected to last all night and up until the doors of the convention hall are opened tomorrow. State Chairman John A. Dix said today that the convention would set a new mark in Democratic contests for harmony. Until this morning not a single contest had been filed with Secretary Mason, of the committee.

The Gaynor bombshell had the effect of stimulating the balance of the booms today. There were enthusiastic gatherings and energetic enacting of promises.

W. R. HEARST SCORNS G. O. P. NOMINATION

Editor Declares He Would Accept No Place on Republican Ticket.

PARIS, Sept. 28.—William Randolph Hearst was asked here today: "Can your statement in a New York paper be interpreted to mean that you would accept a minor nomination on the New York State Republican ticket?" He replied: "Certainly not. I am an Independent Leaguer. I would do anything to help the league, but I would not accept any nomination, large or small, on the Republican ticket."

Colonel Roosevelt had told of the woods yet, according to Hearst, discussing the possibilities of both the Democratic and Republican State conventions in New York.

"Roosevelt has scored the initial success, but there is danger that the tables may yet be turned on him. Roosevelt is fighting one of the most important battles in the history of New York, and he will have to keep his eyes open all the time, for the convention as well as during it, to prevent falling into a trap of their laying."

Asked what he thought of Mayor Gaynor's latest announcement that he would refuse to run if nominated for the governorship, Hearst said:

"It's all stuff, if you will excuse my French. Gaynor is a wise old fellow, and the governorship is what he has been playing for all his life. He wants to make it appear that the candidacy is being forced upon him; that despite everything he would do, the people demanded that he run."

"At the proper time I expect to see him bow to the will of the party and accept the nomination for which he has been striving for months."

EVICTED WOMAN PLANNING TO SUE

Wife of Ohio Banker Claims She Was Roughly Treated By Police.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Mrs. Estella E. Stewart, wife of an Ohio banker, who was evicted yesterday from the home of her stepdaughter, Mrs. William B. Lewis, says she will today bring either a civil or criminal action against those responsible for her eviction.

Mrs. Stewart claims that she was treated roughly, and was not allowed even to dress when the officers entered the home. A maid threw her a waist from an upper window, after the woman had been wrapped in a blanket and brought down to the street.

Covered by the waist and a skirt that she already had on, Mrs. Stewart went to a hotel.

RACE FOR CONGRESS
COSTS HIM $1,000

ROCKVILLE, Md., Sept. 28.—Brainerd H. Warner, Jr., Republican nominee for Congress in this district, yesterday filed with the clerk of the circuit court here a statement of his primary campaign expenses. It showed that he spent $1,065.90, the various items being as follows:

Printing, stamps, typewriting, $279; messengers, $179; hall rent, $127; announcements of candidacy, $125; music, $65; team hire, $44; traveling expenses, $63; speakers' expenses, $105; telephone and telegraphic tolls, $125.

The statement of Gist Blair, Warner's principal opponent in the primaries, shows he spent $285.59 in Montgomery county.

BOYS CROWD CLUB ON OPENING NIGHT

Three Hundred Attend Exercises At Juvenile Headquarters, Seventh and L Streets.

Three hundred boys attended the opening of the Juvenile Club at Seventh and L streets northwest last night when the first exercises of the year took place. It was announced that in future, evenings would be given to the boys, while the girls would have their play in the afternoon.

The club is supported by voluntary contributions, and is in charge of G. A. Fowler. It has no real membership, but about 800 boys spent their evenings at the club last winter. Any boy between the ages of six and sixteen is welcome.

SEARCH FOR NEGRO WANTED FOR MURDER

BEVERLY, N. J., Sept. 28.—A search was instituted today for a negro who is believed to have hanged the thirteen-year-old son of Robert Marquigan, a factory foreman, last Friday, information being received today that the suspect left his boarding house, saying he was going to Alabama, the day the boy's body was found hanging from the front porch.

The suspect returned a verdict that the lad had been murdered by some person unknown, the father having given testimony to the effect that a negro had threatened revenge the same morning because he had refused him money.

At first it was thought the boy had met an accidental death, and then a theory of suicide was advanced.

ILLEGAL DETENTION CLAIMED IN SUIT

New York Journalist Seeks to Recover From Immigration Inspectors.

MONTREAL, Sept. 28.—Papers in a big damage suit are being prepared today by Victor Turner, a New York journalist, who was detained at the immigration bureau here, together with Miss Helen Thomas, of England, it being suspected that the young man was bringing the girl to this country for immoral purposes.

Miss Thomas was married to George Stuart Richards, a wealthy real estate man of Winnipeg, in the immigration building. Tears were shed by the young woman, who is said to have fallen in love with Turner on board ship.

WOMAN IS RUN OVER CRANKING AN AUTO

BABYLON, N. Y., Sept. 28.—Mrs. C. L. Green, of Brooklyn, is in a serious condition at her home, near here, as a result of being run over by her large touring car.

Not knowing the clutch was loose, she started to crank the machine, when it suddenly boomed ahead, knocking her down and passing over her, fracturing her right leg and several ribs. One of the ribs punctured her lung. It is thought she will recover, but her condition is serious.
